1. NAME
   1.1. The name of the association shall be the South African Sports Confederation and Olympic Committee.

2. INCORPORATION, OBJECTS AND BUSINESS
   2.1. The Association shall be a body corporate with full legal capacity, capable of suing and being sued in its own name.

   2.2. The main business of SASCOC is to promote and develop high performance sport as defined in the National Sport and Recreation Act 110 of 1998 as amended by the National Sport and Recreation Amendment Act, No 18 of 2007 in the Republic of South Africa as well as to act as the controlling body for sport in the Republic of South Africa and for the preparation and delivery of Team South Africa as defined in the aforesaid Act, at all multi-sport international games including but not limited to the Olympic Games, Paralympic Games, Commonwealth Games, World Games and All Africa Games.

   2.3. Furthermore, the mission of SASCOC is to develop, promote and protect the Olympic Movement in the Republic of South Africa, in accordance with the Olympic Charter.

   2.4. The following ancillary objects to the main object of SASCOC are set out below:

       2.4.1. To assume those functions relating to high performance sports which were carried out by the following controlling bodies before the establishment of SASCOC:

               2.4.1.1. Disability Sport South Africa (a Non Profit Company);

               2.4.1.2. National Olympic Committee of South Africa;

               2.4.1.3. South African Commonwealth Games Association (a Non Profit Company)

               2.4.1.4. South African Sports Commission;

               2.4.1.5. Sport and Recreation South Africa;

               2.4.1.6. South African Student Sport Union

       2.4.2. to affiliate to and/or be recognised by the appropriate international, continental and regional sport organisations for sport and for high performance sport and for these purposes to act as the recognized national entity for the Republic of South Africa;

2.4.3. to promote the fundamental principles and values of Olympism in the Republic of South Africa, in particular, in the fields of sport and education, by promoting Olympic educational programmes in all levels of schools, sports and physical education institutions and universities, as well as by encouraging the creation of institutions dedicated to Olympic education, such as a National Olympic Academy, an Olympic Museum and other programmes, including cultural, related to the Olympic Movement;

2.4.4. to encourage the development of sport for all;

2.4.5. to help in the training of sports administrators;

2.4.6. to take action against any form of discrimination and violence in sport;

2.4.7. to adopt and implement WADA's Anti-Doping Code, thereby ensuring that SASCOC's anti-doping policies and rules and regulations, membership and/or funding requirements and results management procedures conform with the Code and respect all the rules and responsibilities for NOC's that are listed within the Code;

2.4.8. to initiate, negotiate, arrange, administer, finance and control where necessary, multi-sport tours to and from the Republic of South Africa inclusive of events between teams and/or individuals;

2.4.9. to ensure, and if necessary approve, that the bidding process relating to the hosting of international sporting events in the Republic of South Africa or any other events are in compliance with the necessary rules and regulations relating to same;

2.4.10. in particular, SASCOC shall have the exclusive authority to select and designate the city which may apply to organise the Olympic Games, Commonwealth Games and any other multi-coded sports events in the Republic of South Africa in terms of the bidding and hosting strategy from time to time;

2.4.11. to facilitate the acquisition and development of playing facilities including the construction of stadia and other sports facilities;
2.4.12. to ensure close co-operation with both the government and private sector, relating to all aspects of Team South Africa; and

2.4.13. to ensure the overall protection of symbols, trademarks, emblems or insignia of the bodies referred to and falling within SASCOC's jurisdiction;

2.4.14. to actively encourage local authorities, municipalities, tourism bodies and the like to work with the national federations with regard to the planning and holding of events relevant to the sports code of the National Federation.

2.5. All ancillary objects which are not in accordance with the main object are excluded from the aforementioned ancillary objects of SASCOC.

3. PREAMBLE

3.1. The Founding Members, which consist of South African sports organisations and sportspersons, have unequivocally pledged to unite and commit themselves towards an improved system based upon the principles of equal opportunity, non-racialism and non-sexism for all persons, and have dedicated themselves to ensuring equitable development at national and representative level, which ensures the implementing of co-ordinated sports procedures and policies, which would ensure high performance levels of athleticism, thus allowing delivery of Team South Africa by the pooling of activities, resources, experience and expertise, as well as co-coordinating the preparation, presentation and delivery of Team South Africa to any high performance event worldwide.

3.2. SASCOC, an organisation belonging to the Olympic Movement, undertakes to comply with the provisions of the Olympic Charter and to abide by the decisions of the IOC. Furthermore, the SASCOC undertakes, in accordance with its mission and role at national level, to participate in actions to promote peace and to promote women in sport. SASCOC also undertakes to support and encourage the promotion of sports ethics, to fight against doping in sport and to demonstrate a responsible concern for environmental issues.

11.3.3 In matters of mutual interest, SASCOC and any eligible Members may enter into a written agreement covering issues such as the establishment of a joint liaison committee, selection of the national team, communication, competitions whether national or otherwise, compensation, levies, disputes, officials, coaches and the like.

11.3.4 To approve the budget and all intended expenditure of SASCOC.

11.3.5 To enact, repeal and amend the Rules and Regulations of SASCOC, provided that:-

11.3.6.1 The Board may make no Regulation which is inconsistent with the Constitution of SASCOC and 11.3.6.2 any Regulation made by the Board shall be tabled at the next General Meeting of SASCOC and will be of no force and effect beyond the date of that General Meeting unless it is ratified at the General Meeting.

11.3.6 The Board shall meet at least 4 (four) times per annum.

11.3.7 In carrying out their duties relating to the governing of SASCOC, the Board will, as a guideline relating thereto, apply the governance requirements and principles of the King Report on Governance in South Africa 2009 ("King III"), or as amended from time to time.

11.3.8 In addition to the foregoing and where necessary, the Board will act as focal point for and custodian of governance in SASCOC and will set out its detailed duties and responsibilities in the attached charter marked Annexure "A" from time to time.

11.3.9 A resolution that could be voted on at a Board meeting, may instead of being voted on at a meeting be:

11.3.9.1 submitted by the Board member/s proposing the resolution for consideration to each Board member; and 11.3.9.2 voted on in writing by Board members entitled to exercise voting rights on that matter within 10 (ten) business days after the resolution was submitted to them.

11.3.10 A resolution will have been adopted as a Board Resolution if it has been supported in writing by the requisite majority of the Board members in person who are entitled to exercise and exercise voting rights on the resolution proposed, and, if so adopted, such a resolution will have the same effect as if it had been adopted at a quorate Board meeting.

11.3.11 A round-robin resolution of Board members shall be deemed to have been passed on the date specified in the resolution as the effective date of the resolution provided that the effective date is not a date earlier than the date the resolution was submitted to Board members for their consideration and, if deemed fit, adoption or, failing any such effective date being specified in the resolution, shall be deemed to have been passed on the date on which the resolution was approved in writing by the last of the Board members entitled to do so voting in favour of the resolution or if that, or any other written approval is undated, the date on which such written approval was communicated to SASCOC within the 10 (ten) business days, which votes in favour of the resolution in aggregate are sufficient for the resolution to have been passed. It is recorded that all votes cast in respect of any of the above resolutions shall be recorded.

12. ELECTION OF OFFICERS

12.1. Subject to the provisions of this Article, the election of Board members shall be by vote of Delegates present at a Quadrennial Annual General Meeting of SASCOC.

12.2. Only nominees of Members in good standing and who are citizens and permanent residents of the Republic shall be eligible for election as a member of the Board.

12.3. Employees of SASCOC are not eligible to stand for election onto the Board of SASCOC and Board Members of SASCOC are not eligible for full or major time employment by SASCOC.

12.4. Elected officers of SASCOC shall not accept appointment or election to any international sports body without prior written approval of the Board. It is specifically recorded, however, that should a situation not provided for arise at any international sports meeting, such member may accept an appointment provided that such appointment has been telephonically approved by the President and/or Board and which approval shall be confirmed in writing within 72 (seventy two) hours of the elected official returning to the Republic failing which such approval shall be null and void and the elected official shall be required to vacate their respective office.
12.5. Employees of SASCOC shall not accept appointment and/or election to any international sports body or a member without prior written approval of the Board. It is specifically recorded, however, that should a situation arise at any international sports meeting, such employee may accept an appointment provided that such appointment has been telephonically approved by the President and/or Board and which approval shall be confirmed in writing within 72 (seventy two) hours of the employee returning to the Republic failing which such approval shall be null and void and the employee shall be required to vacate his/her respective office.

12.6. No approved Delegate of SASCOC attending any meeting of any third party shall be permitted to accept nomination for election to that body or any of its committees without the prior written approval of the SASCOC Board. It is specifically recorded, however, that should a situation arise at any international sports meeting, such Delegate may accept an appointment provided that such appointment has been telephonically approved by the President and/or Board and which approval shall be confirmed in writing within 72 (seventy two) hours of the Delegate returning to the Republic failing which such approval shall be null and void and the Delegate shall be required to vacate his/her respective office.

12.7 Each Delegate present at the Quadrennial General Meeting shall have a vote determined by the voting strength referred to in Article 18 in any election of Board members, provided that no Delegate shall be entitled to vote unless the Member which they represent is a Member in good standing.

12.8 Any Member in good standing shall be entitled to submit the names of nominees from any federation for the positions of President, Deputy-President, Vice-President and the Board members referred to in Articles 11.2.1.1, 11.2.1.2 and 11.2.1.3. It is recorded that no more than one person per federation shall be entitled to be elected to serve as a Board member as contemplated in Articles 11.2.1 to 11.2.2.

12.9 A candidate may be nominated for more than one office provided that if and when elected to a particular office, the candidate’s remaining nominations shall lapse.

12.10 60 (sixty) days prior to the date of the Quadrennial General Meeting the Chief Executive Officer, or the Secretariat (on behalf of the Board), shall distribute nomination forms to Members per registered post, telefax and/or email.

12.11 Members shall submit the original nomination forms to SASCOC’s auditor such that they are received at least 30 (thirty) days prior to the date of the Quadrennial General Meeting. The closing date and time shall be specified in a circular distributed by the Chief Executive Officer, or the Secretariat (on behalf of the Board), with the nomination forms.
12.12 No nomination form will be accepted by SASCOC’s auditors unless:

12.12.1 the nomination form is signed by the President/Chairperson and the Secretary of the Member submitting the nomination; and

12.12.2 the nominee has submitted to the auditor their signed acceptance of the nomination on the form provided for this purpose, or on a copy or facsimile thereof, and this signed acceptance has been received by the auditor at least 25 (twenty-five) days prior to the date of the Quadrennial General Meeting.

12.13 The onus shall be on the Member concerned to ensure that nominations and acceptances are received by the auditor on or before the closing date.

12.14 Within 7 (seven) days after the closing date for nominations, the auditor shall submit a list of those persons properly nominated to the Chief Executive Officer, or the Secretariat (on behalf of the Board). The original nomination forms shall be retained by the auditor.

12.15 The Chief Executive Officer, or the Secretariat (on behalf of the Board), shall send the list of acceptable nominations as received from the auditor in terms of Article 12.12 to all Members along with the agenda for the Quadrennial General Meeting at least 21 (twenty one) days prior to the date of the meeting.

12.16 Prior to the commencement of the elections, the meeting shall appoint an electoral officer and two other persons as scrutineers who are not candidates for office, to conduct the elections.

12.17 Should there be fewer nominations than there are vacancies to be filled, those persons presently occupying office shall subject to eligibility continue in office for the further period.

12.18 The first person to be elected shall be the President. Should only 1 (one) nomination be received, that candidate shall be declared duly elected.

12.19 Following the election of the President, the Deputy-President and Vice-President shall then be elected. Should only 2 (two) nominations be received, the candidates shall be declared duly elected. Should more than 2 (two) nominations for these positions be received, then such nominations will be determined by means of a ballot with the two candidates polling the most number of votes elected to the positions of Deputy-President and Vice-President respectively. If the second and/or third ballot does not yield a candidate polling more votes than any other candidate the electoral officer will draw the name of one candidate who shall be declared the successful candidate in the event of the election not yielding 2 (two) candidates who poll more votes than any of the other candidates.
12.19.1 if 1 (one) candidate polled the highest number votes, they will be elected Deputy-President and there will be a second ballot in respect of all candidates who polled the second highest number of votes;

12.19.2 if no single candidate polled the highest number of votes, there will be a second ballot in respect of all candidates who polled the highest number of votes elected to the positions of Deputy-President and Vice-President. If the second ballot does not yield a candidate polling more votes than any other candidate the electoral officer will draw the name of 1 (one) candidate who shall be declared the successful candidate.

12.20 Following the election of the Deputy-President and the Vice-President, the Electoral Officer shall announce the names of the successful candidates.

12.21 5 (five) additional individuals as Board members in accordance with Article 11.2.1.3 shall be elected using a single round of voting, with the 5 (five) candidates poling the highest number of votes being elected. Where only 5 (five) nominations are received, the nominated candidates shall be declared duly elected. Delegates may vote for a maximum of 5 (five) candidates, but may vote for less than 5 (five).

12.22 If there is a tie amongst more candidates than there are positions to be filled on the Board, there will be a second ballot in respect of those candidates. If the second ballot also results in a tie amongst any of those candidates, the electoral officer will draw the name of 1 (one) or more candidates (as the case may be) who shall be declared the successful candidate/s.

12.23 Should any dispute relating to an election arise during the meeting, the electoral officer shall rule thereon, and their ruling shall be final and may not be challenged by any candidate, Delegate or Member.

12.24 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, Board members hold office until their successors have been elected at a Quadrennial Annual General Meeting.

12.25 A vacancy on the Board shall occur:

12.25.1 upon the death of an individual serving as a board member;

12.25.2 if an individual serving as a board member is absent from 3 (three) consecutive meetings or on a rolling aggregate of 50% (fifty per cent) or less of meetings over an 18 (eighteen) month period of the Board, without prior permission, unless the Board upon good cause being shown, otherwise decides; or 12.25.3 if an individual serving as a board member is found guilty of having conducted themselves in any manner likely to prejudice the objects or activities of SASCOC and/or whose conduct has the effect of bringing SASCOC and/or sport into disrepute;

12.25.4 if an individual serving as a board member is disqualified from acting as a director in terms of the Companies Act, (had that individual been a director of a company);

12.25.5 if an individual serving as a board member becomes of unsound mind or lunatic;

12.25.6 if an individual serving as a board member is sequestrated;

12.25.7 if an individual serving as a board member proposes a compromise with his/her creditors generally;

12.25.8 if an individual serving as a board member resigns their office by notice in writing to SASCOC;

12.25.9 if an individual serving as a board member becomes an employee of SASCOC; and 12.25.10 if an individual serving as a board member is removed from a position of trust.

12.26 Should the office of any individual serving as a member of the Board become vacant, the remaining members of the Board shall have the power to co-opt an individual in their place until the next Annual General Meeting, provided that should the office of the President become vacant, the Board shall, at its next meeting, elect in the first instance the Deputy-President and thereafter the Vice-President to act as President until the next Annual General Meeting.

12.27 At any Annual General Meeting which is not a Quadrennial General Meeting, elections will be held to fill offices vacated during the previous year. Candidates for such elections may be nominated only in accordance with the nomination procedures of this Article. In each category of member in respect of which there are vacancies, Delegates may vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies with the required number of candidates who obtain the highest number of votes in the first round of voting being elected. In the event of a tie, the tie-break mechanisms set out in Article 12.22 will apply.
12.28 An individual elected in accordance with Article 12.27 to fill a vacancy on the Board holds office until the next Quadrennial General Meeting.

12.29 The President and CEO may not serve or hold office on the Board or controlling body of any Member.

12.30 All appointments whether pursuant to elections or otherwise will be communicated to the members at the next General Meeting.

13. REGISTER OF MEMBERS

13.1. SASCOC shall maintain the register of Members at the office or at any other place where the work of making up such register is done as provided in section 105 of the Companies Act.

13.2. The register shall be open to inspection as provided in section 113 of the Companies Act.

14. GENERAL MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

14.1. SASCOC shall hold at least 2 (two) General Meetings of Members during a financial year, of which one shall be the Annual or Quadrennial General Meeting to be held not later than 9 (nine) months after the end of each financial year.

14.2. The Board may, whenever it deems necessary, convene a General Meeting, and the Secretariat shall so convene such General Meeting if a General Meeting is requisitioned by at least 60% (sixty percent) of the combined membership referred to in Article 8. If at any time there are, within the Republic, insufficient members of the Board capable of acting to form a quorum, any member of the Board may convene a General Meeting in the same manner, as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the Board.

14.3. A General Meeting shall be called by the Board within 30 (thirty) days after receipt of a requisition signed on behalf of 1/3 (one third) of the Members in good standing. The agenda for such meeting shall be specified in the requisition.

14.4. Subject to the provisions of this Article 14 and 15, a General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as the Board shall determine.

14.5. The Chief Executive Officer or the Secretariat shall, by registered post, telefax or electronic mail, give all Members at least 90 (ninety) days advance notice of the date of the Annual General Meeting, which date shall be determined by the Board. The Annual General Meeting shall be called no later than 31 December of each calendar year.

14.6. Motions to an Annual General Meeting shall be submitted to the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretariat of SASCOC in writing per registered post and/or telefax and/or electronic mail not less than 30 (thirty) days prior to the date of such Annual General Meeting. The Chief Executive Officer or the Secretariat of SASCOC shall circulate all motions submitted to them together with the agenda for the Meeting and the audited financial statements of SASCOC to all Members per registered post and/or telefax and/or electronic mail not less than 14 (fourteen) days prior to the Annual General Meeting.

14.7. Members must forward in writing to the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretariat the names of the Delegates who will represent them at the Annual General Meeting/ General Meeting / Special General Meeting. Unless such confirmation is received by the Chief Executive Office and/or the Secretariat at least 7 (seven) days before the meeting, on your organizations letterhead, the Delegates in question will not be accredited and will be excluded from the meeting.

15. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

15.1. A meeting called for the passing of a special resolution shall be called by not less than 21 (twenty one) clear days’ notice in writing and any other General Meeting (other than the Annual General meeting) shall be called by not less than 14 (fourteen) clear days’ notice in writing. Notice in terms of this Article shall be exclusive of the date on which it is served or deemed to be served and exclusive of the date for which it is given.

15.2. The notice of a meeting shall specify:

- 15.2.1. the place;
- 15.2.2. the date and the hour of the meeting; and
- 15.2.3. in the case of special business, the general nature of such business, and shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided or in such other manner as may be prescribed by SASCOC in General Meeting and to such persons as are, under the Articles, entitled to receive such notices from SASCOC.
15.3 Notwithstanding the provisions of the Articles:

15.3.1 a General Meeting shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in the Articles, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, who hold not less than 95% (ninety five per cent) of the total voting rights of all the Members;

15.3.2 a General Meeting shall be entitled to deal with special business, the general nature of which has not been notified, if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, who between them hold not less than 95% (ninety five per cent) of the total voting rights of the Members.

16. PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

16.1. The Annual General Meeting shall deal with and dispose of all matters prescribed by the Companies Act, as if SASCOC was a non-profit company including the consideration of the annual financial statements, the election of Board Members where appropriate, the appointment of an auditor and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditor, and may deal with any other business laid before it and of which notice has been duly given in terms of the Articles or in respect of which notice has been waived in terms of Article 15.3.

16.2. Business may be transacted at a General Meeting only while a quorum of Members is present.

16.3. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the General Meeting a quorum is not present, the General Meeting, if convened upon requisition of the Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case the General Meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or if that day is not a business day, to the next succeeding business day, and if at such adjourned General Meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting, the Members present in person shall constitute a quorum, provided that every Member shall have received notice of the adjourned General Meeting not less than 72 (seventy two) hours prior thereto by either electronic mail, facsimile, hand delivery, telegram, telex, post or telephone call.

16.4. The President or, in his absence, the Deputy-President or the Vice-President shall preside as chairperson at every General Meeting and Board Meetings of SASCOC.
16.5. If there is no such chairperson or if at any General Meeting they are not present within 15 (fifteen) minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting or if they are unwilling to act as chairperson, the Board shall choose one of their number to act as chairperson and, failing any Board member present and willing to act, the Members present shall elect one of their number to be the chairperson of the meeting.

16.6. The chairperson of a General Meeting at which a quorum is present may (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted as any adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the meeting at which adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned, it shall not be necessary to give notice thereof.

16.7. A resolution tabled at a General Meeting shall require both a proposer and a seconder.

16.8. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by the chairperson or by at least 2 (two) Members entitled to vote at the meeting. No poll shall, however, be demanded on the election of the chairperson of the meeting or on any question of adjournment. Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairperson of the meeting that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or failed, an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of SASCOC shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

16.9. If a poll is demanded:

16.9.1. the poll shall be taken in such manner and at such time as the chairperson of the meeting shall direct;

16.9.2. the chairperson of the meeting shall be entitled to appoint scrutineers;

16.9.3. no notice of a poll other than an announcement at the meeting at which it is demanded shall be required;

16.9.4. the demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuation of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded;

16.9.5. a demand for a poll may be withdrawn; and
16.9.6. The result of a poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on any question on which the poll is taken.

16.10 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairperson of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is taken shall have a casting vote. However, no casting vote shall be available at any election of members of the Board.

16.11 Any objection to the admissibility of a vote on a show of hands or on a poll shall be raised at the General Meeting at which that show of hands or poll is to take place or takes place. That objection shall be determined by the a simple majority of the General Meeting and such decision thereon shall be final and binding. Accordingly any vote not disallowed at that meeting shall be valid for all purposes.

16.12 A resolution shall not be invalid because a vote which should not have been included has been taken into account unless, in the opinion of the chairperson of that meeting (whose decision thereon shall be final and binding), the exclusion of that vote would have altered the result of the voting on that resolution. Conversely a resolution shall not be invalid because a vote which should have been included has not been taken into account unless, in the opinion of the chairperson of that meeting (whose decision thereon shall be final and binding), the inclusion of that vote would have altered the result of the voting on that resolution.

17. REPRESENTATION

17.1. Each National Sports Federation shall be entitled to appoint 2 (two) Delegates to represent it at General Meetings.

17.2. Each Associate Member shall be entitled to appoint 2 (two) Delegates to represent it at General Meetings.

17.3. Each Special Organisational Member shall be entitled to appoint 2 (two) Delegates to represent it at General Meetings.

17.4. Each Provincial Sports Confederation shall be entitled to appoint 1 (one) Delegate to represent it at General Meetings.

17.5. The Athletes' Commission shall be entitled to appoint 2 (two) Delegates to represent it at General Meetings.
17.6. No Delegate may be appointed by a Member unless they are a duly authorised representative or elected board member of that Member.

18. VOTING RIGHTS

Notwithstanding any of the provisions contained in Articles 18.1 to 18.12, the Members will be entitled to only the highest category number of votes for which they qualify.

18.1 All Delegates of Members in good standing and eligible to vote shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting of SASCOC.

18.2 No Member shall be entitled to give or obtain any form of proxy vote whatsoever.

18.3 The Ex Officio Members and IOC Members shall each be entitled to 1 (one) vote.

18.4 The Athletes’ Commission shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote.

18.5 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.1 shall be entitled to 3 (three) votes.

18.6 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.2 shall be entitled to 3 (three) votes.

18.7 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.3 shall be entitled to 2 (two) votes.

18.8 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.4 shall be entitled to 2 (two) votes.

18.9 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.5 shall be entitled to 2 (two) votes.

18.10 National Sports Federations as per Article 8.1.6 shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote.

18.11 Associate Members as per Article 8.2 shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote.

18.12 Provincial Sports Confederation as per Article 8.6 shall be entitled to 1 (one) vote.

18.13 Special Organisational Members as per Article 8.3 shall not be entitled to any vote.

18.14 The voting majority of the General Meeting shall consist of the votes cast by the Olympic Sports Federations or their representatives.

18.15 When dealing with questions relating to the Olympic Games, only the votes cast by the members of the Board and by the Olympic Sports Federations are taken into consideration.

18.16 When dealing with questions relating to the Commonwealth Games, only the votes cast by the members of the Board and by the Sports Federations whose sports appear on the programme of the forthcoming Commonwealth Games are taken into consideration.
18.17 When dealing with questions relating to the Paralympic Games, only the votes cast by the members of the Board and by the Sports Federations whose sport appears on the programme of the forthcoming Paralympic Games are taken into consideration.

18.18 When dealing with questions relating to the World Games, only the votes cast by the members of the Board and by the National Sports Federations whose sport appears on the programme of the forthcoming World Games are taken into consideration.

18.19 It is specifically recorded that, irrespective of the number of Delegates present at the meeting, the Delegate nominated to cast the votes on behalf of their respective delegation, shall exercise the number of votes to which that Member is entitled.

18.20 For the purpose of the election of the Board:

18.20.1. no voting will be done by a show of hands. Voting shall be by secret ballot and each person mandated to vote shall be required to exercise such vote;

18.20.2. the President shall act as chairperson at all meetings of SASCOC, except elections, and shall have a deliberative as well as a casting vote.

18.21 At the conclusion of the meeting all elected individuals shall immediately take office and constitute the Board.

19. MINUTES AND INSPECTION

19.1. The Board shall cause a record to be made of all resolutions of SASCOC in General Meetings in a book provided for that purpose.

19.2. The minutes kept in terms of Article 19.1 (or any extract therefrom) which must be signed by the chairperson of the Board or by any member of the Board or the Secretariat shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated.

19.3. The minute book shall be open for inspection and may be copied as provided in the Companies Act as if SASCOC was a non-profit company.

20. POWERS OF SASCOC

20.1. SASCOC shall have the power to:

20.1.1. distribute in specie or in kind any of its assets among its Members;

20.1.2. undertake and execute any trust.

20.2. The following specific powers or part of any specific powers of SASCOC shall be limited as follows:
20.2.1. the power to:

20.2.1.1. purchase or acquire in any way stock-in-trade, plant, machinery, land, buildings, agencies, shares, debentures and every other kind or description of movable and immovable property;

20.3.4. elect or nominate any individual or individuals to represent it at any national, regional or international forums as and when the need may arise.

21. CONDITIONS

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Constitution, the following special conditions shall apply to SASCOC:

21.1 The income and property of SASCOC, regardless of where or how same has been derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its main objects and no portion thereof shall otherwise be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever, to the Members of SASCOC.

21.2 Any property of SASCOC and the use thereof and any income accruing to SASCOC shall be applied solely towards SASCOC and SASCOC shall not engage in any transaction with a view to the pecuniary gain or profit of its Members. No Member shall make a profit out of their membership except in the case of and as a salaried officer of SASCOC.

21.3 Upon its winding-up, deregistration or dissolution, the assets of SASCOC remaining after the satisfaction of all its liabilities shall be given or transferred to another Public Benefit Organisation, exempted from income tax in terms of section 30 of the Income Tax Act having objects similar to the main object of SASCOC, as may be determined by the Members of SASCOC at or before the time of its dissolution or, failing such determination, then by the Court.

21.4 All donations to SASCOC must be irrevocable.

21.5 SASCOC may be dissolved, liquidated or wound up by a special resolution of a special meeting of the Members of the General Meeting convened for the purpose of considering such matter.

21.6 The activities of SASCOC (or substantially the whole thereof) will be carried out in the Republic of South Africa.

21.7 SASCOC will not carry on any business undertaking or trading activity unless specifically permitted in terms of Section 30(3)(b)(iv) of the Income Tax Act.

21.8 The members of SASCOC, except for professional sports administrators, shall not accept any compensation or bonus of any kind in consideration of their services or the performance of their duties. However, SASCOC may consider remuneration, having regard to what is generally considered reasonable in relation to service rendered but will not economically benefit any person in a manner which is not consistent with its objects.

22. FINANCE

22.1. SASCOC shall be conducted on a non-profit basis as contemplated in this Constitution.

22.2. The signatories of SASCOC cheques shall be any 2 (two) duly authorised persons appointed by the Board signing together.

22.3. SASCOC may invest its funds in the manner contemplated in this Constitution.

22.4. The Board shall cause to be kept such accounting records as are necessary fairly to present the state of affairs and business of SASCOC and to explain the transactions and financial position of SASCOC in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and as amended from time to time.

22.5. The Board shall open and maintain a bank account for and in the name of SASCOC.

22.6. SASCOC's records shall be kept at the office or such other place or places as the Board thinks fit and shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by the Board members and by past Board members but, in the case of the latter, only in respect of the period during which they held office as Board members.

22.7. The Board shall from time to time determine whether, to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounting records of SASCOC or any of them may be open to inspection by Members of SASCOC or in General Meeting.

23. AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

23.1. The Board shall from time to time cause the annual audited financial statements to be prepared and laid before SASCOC Members in an Annual General Meeting as if SASCOC was a non-profit organisation in terms of the Companies Act.

23.2. A copy of annual audited financial statements which are to be laid before SASCOC Members at the Annual General Meeting shall, not less than 21 (twenty one) clear days' before the date of that meeting, be sent to every Member of SASCOC. The provisions of this Article shall not require a copy of those documents to be sent to any Member who has not furnished an address to SASCOC.

23.3. Within 6 (six) months after the end of SASCOC's financial year end, the Board shall cause the annual audited financial statements to be submitted to the Director of Non-Profit Organisations and to the South African Revenue Service.
24. AUDITOR

An auditor shall be appointed notwithstanding the status of SASCOC as an association which auditor has been duly approved at an Annual General Meeting.

25. NOTICES

For the purposes of the Constitution of SASCOC:

25.1. Any document sent by registered mail shall be deemed to have been received within 7 (seven) working days of same having been posted.

25.2. Any document proven to have been faxed successfully to a fax line shall be deemed to have been received at the address of that fax line within 1 (one) working day of same having been faxed.

25.3. Any document proven to have been sent successfully by electronic mail to an electronic mail address shall be deemed to have been received by the owner of that electronic mail address within 1 (one) working day of same having been successfully sent.

26. EVENT COMPLIANCE

26.1. Multi-sport events at national and international level involving more than 1 (one) National Sports Federation or representative teams may not take place within the Republic without the approval by SASCOC, and no National Sports Federation affiliated to SASCOC or sports person registered with such a National Federation may participate in such an event, whether it takes place within or outside the Republic, without the consent of SASCOC.

26.2. The request for approval shall be submitted to SASCOC in writing at least 2 (two) months before the earliest of the planned dates for the event.

26.3. The request for approval shall be accompanied by a list of the teams who are planning to take part in the event and the event regulations.

27. INDEMNITY

The Board, Committees of the Board and other official structures together with staff of SASCOC are indemnified against all losses, charges, costs, damage and all other expense and liability they may incur or be put to concerning the bona fide execution of their duties as officials of SASCOC, subject to the fiduciary duties and duties of care and skill being complied with as if they were directors of a company formed in terms of the Companies Act.

28. RULES

28.1. SASCOC may, by a simple majority of votes cast at a General Meeting, adopt, amend or repeal Rules consistent with the Constitution of SASCOC.

28.2. All Rules and regulations shall be deemed to form part of the Constitution of SASCOC and the membership shall be bound by same.

29. DISPUTE MECHANISM AND RESOLUTION

29.1. Everybody or individual falling under the jurisdiction of SASCOC shall ensure that any dispute that it has with a body or individual falling under the jurisdiction of SASCOC or any dispute with SASCOC, itself is resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution mechanism set out below.

29.2. The Board shall, prior to each quadrennial General Meeting, nominate, in writing a panel of arbitrators to adjudicate disputes pursuant to Article 29.1 above. The said panel shall consist of not less than four persons who are senior advocates admitted to practice in the Republic or retired judges who previously acted as such (the SASCOC arbitrators).

29.3. All disputes pursuant to Article 29.1 shall be resolved by arbitration to be held before a SASCOC arbitrator agreed to by the disputing parties. If the disputing parties are unable to agree upon the nomination of one of the SASCOC arbitrators within five business days of being called upon to do so, the President shall in sole and absolute discretion be entitled to appoint the arbitrator from the SASCOC arbitrators.

29.4. Save for the appointment of the arbitrator in terms of article 29.3 above the arbitration shall be held in terms of the rules and procedures of the arbitration foundation of Southern Africa or its successor, provided that the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the disputing parties and on appeal shall be allowed.

29.5. Notwithstanding the foregoing the disputing parties may, by written agreement, refer a dispute pursuant to Article 29.3 above to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in accordance with the Code of Sports-Related Arbitration.

29.6. In the circumstances set out in Article 29.5 above it is recorded that the decision of the arbitrator or the decision of CAS, as the case may be, shall be final and binding on all parties in all manners whatsoever.

29.7. Subject to the Constitution of the Republic, and save in circumstances where there is a need for urgent relief of a sort which cannot be obtained through the dispute resolution procedures contemplated by this Article (including the holding of an arbitration as envisaged in Article 29.3, on an urgent basis), no body or individual falling under the
35. COMPLIANCE BY MEMBERS

35.1. The constitutions of the Members, and any proposed amendments thereto, must comply with the SASCOC Constitution and be submitted to SASCOC for approval.

35.2. The Members will adopt codes of conduct and best practices in line with the Governance Code for Sport adopted by SASCOC and principles of corporate governance applicable to companies in the Republic from time to time.

35.3. SASCOC is entitled to exercise rights granted by its Members to SASCOC in terms of their constitutions and members’ constitutions shall include the granting of this right and power to SASCOC.

35.4. SASCOC is entitled to enforce compliance by its Members with the terms of their constitutions and members’ constitutions shall include the granting of this right and power to SASCOC.

35.5. Any Member who is found guilty of failing to abide by the provisions of this Constitution, Rules and Regulations shall not be entitled to funding by the Government of the Republic of South Africa (inclusive of Provincial / Municipal agencies) via the Department of Sport and Recreation and/or the National Lottery Distribution Trust Fund and/or SASCOC.

35.6. SASCOC and Members, as appropriate, are required to comply with section 30 of the Income Tax Act as public benefit organisations.

36. ANTI-DOPING

SASCOC and all Members agree to comply and be bound by and to procure that their members comply with the code presently in force and adopted by the government of South Africa and the IOC arising out of the WADA declaration adopted in Copenhagen in March 2002 (as amended) or any subsequent declaration or declarations adopted by WADA from time to time.

Adopted at the SASCOC Special General Meeting on 9 November 2013

PRESIDENT: GIDEON SAM
